Beloveds,

Sunday we gather for one worship service at 9:00 am, followed by brunch and our annual meeting which will start at 10:30 am (so if you sleep in, do come for the meeting). The theme of the readings assigned for the Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany focus on who are the blessed ones of God? For Micah, they are those who do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with God—a fitting theme for our annual meeting as we look back with gratitude and forward with hope for all that God has done and promises.

The most famous verse from Micah is a reminder of how we are to live as

The Collect for the Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany

Almighty and everlasting God, you govern all things both in heaven and on earth: Mercifully hear the supplications of your people, and in our time grant us your peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

individuals and community. In the Talmud the central text of Rabbinic Judaism and the primary source of Jewish religious law theology, it says: "Do not be daunted by the enormity of the world's grief. Do justice now. Love mercy now. Walk humble now. You are not obligated to do the work, but neither are you free to abandon it."

As we gather Sunday, God promises to surround us with reminders of who and whose we are. We will splash in the waters of baptism, be given new life in the word, and be fed and forgiven through bread and wine. Around God's table hunger is satisfied, and a hunger for justice and love is renewed. So come Sunday, worship at a later or earlier time and then gather in the parish hall as we blessed and broken, are renewed to do God's work as God's people feeding the hunger of others as, together, we await the fulfillment of the kin-dom.

May they will know we are Christians by our justice, mercy, and humility,
Bill+

Holy, gracious and loving God, you confound the world's wisdom in giving your kingdom to the lowly and the pure in heart. Give us such a hunger and thirst for justice, and perseverance in striving for peace, that in our words and deeds the world may see the life of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

God loves you. No exceptions.

The Episcopal Church Welcomes You.

As you listen to 2 different versions of "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah" from the amazing Mormon Tabernacle Choir and orchestra, may our Lord Jesus encourage our weary hearts with assurance of His gracious guidance through each and every moment of our journey here.

52 Ways to Care for Creation

Week 1

Make a "Green" New Year's Resolution

Happy New Year! Start the year by choosing a "green" resolution that is meaningful to you. How can you make more eco-conscious choices this year? How can you care for creation in 2023?

Week 2

Host an Eco Bible Study

Host a creation-focused bible study! Scripture is full of nature verses, references, and metaphors. How does Genesis relate to our responsibility to care for the earth? Which psalms inspire reverence for nature? Check out the "resource hub" on our website for bible study resources.

Week 3

Celebrate MLK Day in Your Community

Find and attend a local/online event celebrating Dr. King's birthday! As he once wrote, "we aren't going to have peace on Earth until we recognize the basic fact of the interrelated structure of all reality." Consider the relationship between social justice and creation justice.

Week 4

Rest and Reflect

Winter is a time of rest and renewal for the earth and for God's creatures, including us. How does winter reflect the Sabbath? How can you invite the practice of Sabbath into your life this season?

Find more theological & educational resources at creationjustice.org/resources

Week 5

Sing Hymns of Creation

Find/choose some creation-themed hymns to sing at church. Some ideas: "All Things Bright and Beautiful" and "The Ocean is a Call to Worship."

January 10, 17, 24 - Lessons in Chemistry a novel by Bonnie Garmus

*Chemist Elizabeth Zott is not your average woman. In fact, Elizabeth Zott would be the first to point out that there is no such thing as an average woman. But it's the early 1960s and her all-male team at Hastings Research Institute takes a very unscientific view of equality. Except for one: Calvin Evans; the lonely, brilliant, Nobel-prize nominated grudge-holder who falls in love with—of all things—her mind. True chemistry results. But like science, life is unpredictable. Which is why a few years later Elizabeth Zott finds herself not only a single mother, but the reluctant star of America's most beloved cooking show Supper at Six. Elizabeth's unusual approach to cooking proves revolutionary. But as her following grows, not everyone is happy because she isn't just teaching women to cook. She's daring them to change the status quo.*

Thursday Bible Study

Hebrews Bible Study Begins Thursday, January 12th

God of heaven and earth, before the foundation of the universe and the beginning of time you are the triune God: Author of creation, eternal Word of salvation, life-giving Spirit of wisdom.

Guide us to all truth by your Spirit, that we may proclaim all that Christ has revealed and rejoice in the glory he shares with us. Glory and praise to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

The Letter to the Hebrews is one of the more sophisticated New Testament writings, with the author connecting the Old Testament passages to the present concerns of the community of faith. We will gather Thursday afternoons at 3:00 pm in the Beck Memorial Library and online via Zoom to walk through this New Testament book examining the thematic questions: Who Is Jesus?, What Did Jesus Do?, What Is Faith?, How Shall We Live?, and What If Faith Fails?
