Beloveds Saints and Shoppers,

In the gospel for Sunday, Jesus discovers that the temple has been turned from a place of worship into a marketplace. The selling of animals and the exchanging of money for profit overshadow worshipping God (the main purpose of the temple). The purveyors and moneychangers seem to have sold-out to their greed than in serving God and God's people by getting in the way instead of helping people worship. The commercialization of worship excludes those who cannot afford the price, making money a god more valued than God to whom the temple was dedicated.

John's gospel is unique among the four gospels in that it places the story of Jesus

Third Sunday in Lent
Year B
March 3, 2024

Lent is not a gloomy time, a sad time, or a depressing time for those who are remembering what God has done for them. Our self-examination, which reveals our sin, prepares us to recognize our need for God. Then we gather Sunday by Sunday in the liturgy where our story as the people of God reminds us that God has met and still meets our need. Our fasting and self-denial give us the resources with which we can join Christ in his struggle against evil and death. Joining with him in that, we also join him in his victory.

8:00 a.m. & 10:00 a.m., The Holy Eucharist, Rite II
The Rev. William Petersen, Celebrant
Holly Simons, Minister of Music

The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God.

Links to the Readings

- Exodus 20:1-17 The commandments are given at Sinai
- 1 Corinthians 1:18-25 Christ crucified, the wisdom of God
- John 2:13-22 The cleansing of the temple
- Psalms 19 The commandment of the Lord gives light to the eyes clearing the temple at the beginning, rather than the end, of Jesus' ministry. This placement shows how John's gospel emphasizes that Jesus has come to replace the temple. No longer will God's presence be confined to a place, the temple, but instead, God's presence is now embodied in the person of Jesus. Jesus welcomes all to him, and erects no barriers or exclusions on who is welcomed in the kin-dom of God.

Here are some reflections to focus from the marketplaces of the world to your Lenten journey:

- Today: Where can you seek and serve Christ in someone unlike you? Read Jeremiah 30:22, 31:4-5
- Saturday: In your prayers today, what new words or thoughts touch you? Read Philippians 4:6
- Sunday: Experience worship in person or online this third Sunday in Lent
- Monday: Intentionally smile at least ten times today. Read Philippians 4:4
- Tuesday: How might you connect with others in the spirit of renewal? Read 1 Kings 19:11-12
- Wednesday: How can you build pauses into the day to reflect on the work of the Spirit? Read John 15:5
- Thursday: What relationships do you need to mend? Read Isaiah 55:6-8

Lenten Midweek Celtic Worship & Labyrinth Walk

Intentional spiritual practices are critical to our growth in Christ. During March, All Saints will offer a brief midweek Celtic worship service at noon in the Stevens Room, followed by a time to experience the labyrinth, either walking our portable one, or using a variety of hand-held ones.

The best way to learn about a labyrinth is to

The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you know that we have no power in ourselves to help ourselves: Keep us both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls, that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

walk one- with an open heart and open mind, then allow your experience to guide you. Labyrinths are a place of prayer, reflection, healing and discernment. To experience one offers an intentional place to quiet our minds and help us locate our inner peace.

We each come to the path bringing our many realities, our individual histories, the unique journeys we have traveled. To experience the labyrinth is to acknowledge that the paths merge. In our fractured and fragmented world, this metaphor can set the stage for powerful healing energies on many levels - within individuals, communities, and nations.

From The Music and Tech Corner...

Dear fellow pilgrims,

This is the season to listen to the full work of Mozart's Requiem in D minor.

<https://youtu.be/XmttZ-BnwaI?>

Nina Magic writes online “This infamous masterpiece is shrouded in mystery, which makes it all the more fascinating, compelling and emotionally stirring”. If you google “the history of Mozart’s Requiem” you will find an unusual story that makes this profound composition all the more exciting in the hearing.

If you’ve never viewed the movie “Amadeus”, this is also a “must view”, where this story of the requiem’s commissioning and incompleteness due to Mozart’s death (at age 35!) is truly amazing. (You can rent/buy the movie Amadeus on Youtube).

My own heart was deeply stirred this week in pondering the miraculous gifts of composers, and especially this young prodigy who died so prematurely. (And yet lived such a profligate lifestyle that one wonders how he lived even to that age....!)

Blessings and meaningful reflections in your Lenten week,

Holly

All Saints Community Labyrinth Project F.A.Q. for March 1st

Pastor Bill introduced the Community Labyrinth Project recently during his remarks at our annual meeting. As we discern and plan, you may have questions about labyrinths and each week we will share a frequently asked question here. Feel free to ask any questions of Pastor Bill or Linda Brown who are both trained labyrinth facilitators by Veriditas the non-profit organization committed to inspiring transformation through the labyrinth experience. The word "Veriditas" originated with Hildegard of Bingen and means "the greening power of life".

Have Christians always used labyrinths?

Labyrinths can be traced in the Christian tradition back to some of the earliest centuries of formation of the church. With the spreading of the faith, especially after Constantine made Christianity the religion of Rome, labyrinths began to be used in the coming centuries as a spiritual tool for the art of pilgrimage. The theology of pilgrimage is one that is centered in walking prayer and devotion to God. Jesus and his family made such a pilgrimage in his early years to Jerusalem to make an offering at the temple. Such theology also builds on the concept of certain places having the spiritual capacity to tell the story of a faith. For Christians this has historically been the story of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection in and around the holy place of Jerusalem. So, Christians would pilgrimage to Jerusalem to embody and live into the sacred story of Jesus. In light of the Gospel message being taken all over the region, a theology of sacred places became less important because of the risen Christ and his ability to be made known in the lives of followers wherever they were located. However, that being said, Christians have continued for centuries after the inception of the faith to use the practice of prayer walking and even labyrinths to connect with the risen Christ.

BIBLE STUDY TOGETHER!

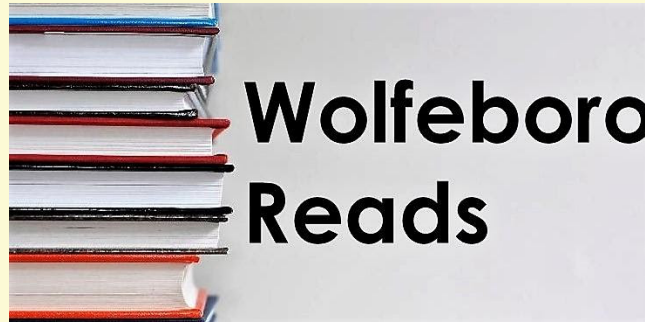

Thursdays in the Beck Library and online via Zoom at 3:00 pm, followed by Eucharist

Thursday Afternoon Bible Study

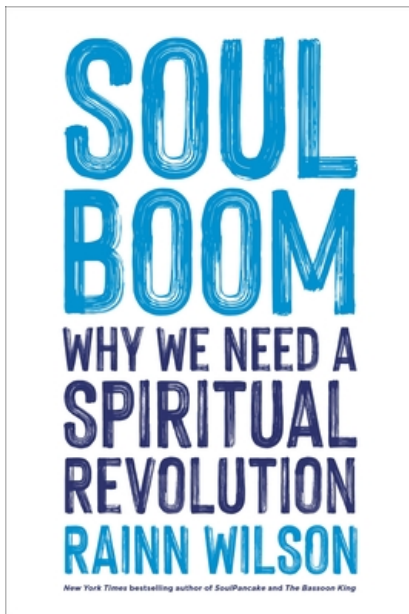

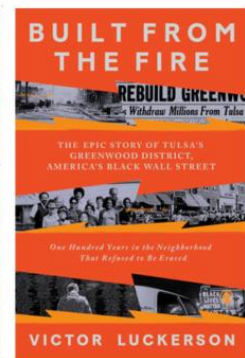

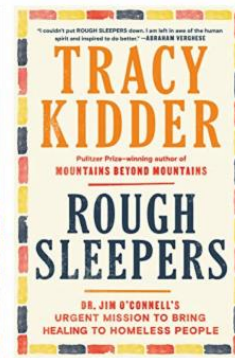

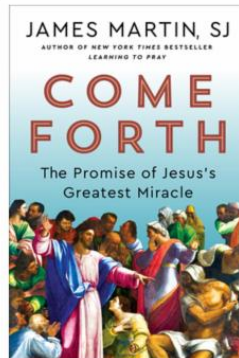

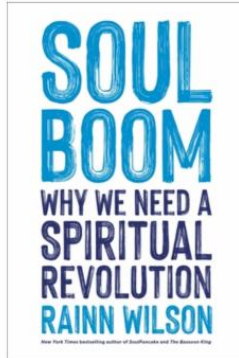

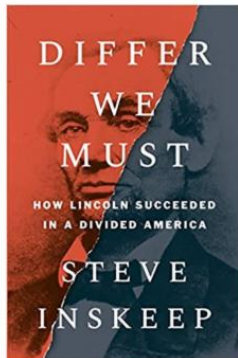

In January, the Rector's Bible Study will read through Paul's first letter to the Corinthians. We will hear this epistle in worship throughout the time after Epiphany. It speaks about the incarnation as both the revelation of God's empathy for and solidarity with the human condition and our baptismal calling to practice such empathy and solidarity with our neighbors as the nature of discipleship. In the time after Epiphany, we will ponder the revelation of God in the person of Jesus and, through baptism, in our personhood as well.

Please join us for our community book group as we gather via Zoom on Tuesdays 4:00-5:15 pm for reflection and discussion. The Wolfeboro Public Library and Country Bookseller have our lists.

Winter/Spring 2024

Join us for Wolfeboro Reads in February (6th, 13th and 27th) as we discuss how the trauma that our struggling species has experienced in recent years—because of both the pandemic and societal tensions that threaten to overwhelm us—is not going away anytime soon. Existing political and economic systems are not enough to bring the change that the world needs. In his book Rainn Wilson explores the possibility and hope for a spiritual revolution, a “Soul Boom,” to find a healing transformation on both a personal and global level.

Join us Tuesdays, at 4:00 pm on Zoom:
