Jesus Met the Woman at the Well

Beloved Saints and Sinners,

The woman at the well is a familiar text for many people. The story of the meeting between Jesus and the Samaritan woman from the Gospel of John has been immortalized in song the traditional gospel song "Jesus Met the Woman at the Well" by The Pilgrim Travelers and Mahalia Jackson in the 1950's, Peter, Paul and Mary in the 1960's, and Bob Dylan included it in his Trouble No More album in 2017. I encourage you to click on any of these links to listen to the individual artist's version before Sunday.

This image of Jesus standing at a well talking with a Samaritan woman is something (like with many other Bible

- Psalms 95 Let us shout for joy to the rock of our stories) that we know. Many see it simply as moralism “be nice to people who are different”. This simplistic understanding causes us to miss how deeply radical and difficult the message really is. This gospel urges us to stand with anyone who has been marginalized by society, and in this Women’s History Month, especially women.

But before we congratulate ourselves for being just like Jesus when we stand with marginalized women, the reality is that Jesus doesn’t just stand with the other, Jesus stands with our other. Who are the “others” in your life? Whom do you struggle to see and love as God’s children? When we draw lines between ourselves and other people, Jesus is always on the other side of that line. Jesus meets, loves, and shares living water with all of our “others” and calls us to share and splash in that water together.

Blessings for your Lenten journey,
Bill+

P.S. Thank you to the 37 individuals/households who gave generously to meet the $15,000 Growth in Giving matching gift challenge! The receipt of these one-time and increased pledged gifts will keep our budget balanced.

P.S.S. You are invited to make an appointment to come see me, your spiritual health director, for an annual wellness visit during Lent and discuss with me as your pastor: How is your faith—is there anything that you have resigned yourself to? Or do you believe that God can do the impossible? How is your sense of hope—is there anything that you’ve given up on? Or do you believe God can make a way where there is no way? And How is your sense of joy—are you depressed or emotionally flat? Or are you overflowing with excitement at what God has done for you?

The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you know that we have no power in ourselves to help ourselves: Keep us both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls, that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Flower Dedication

The bare branches of a grape vine have a chain of prayers added each week (prayers are available on the resource table outside the parish office).

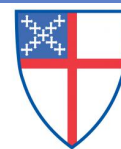

MIDDAY LENTEN WORSHIP THE WAY OF LOVE + BLESS NOW THE JOURNEY

Beginning Wednesdays on March 1st at noon in the Stevens Room

As we pause to feed our bodies in the middle of the day,
we pause Wednesdays
in Lent to feed our souls through contemplation and walking in faith.

God loves you.
No exceptions.
The Episcopal Church Welcomes You.

From The Music Corner...

Dear Lenten sojourners,

Have you ever been introduced to musician Juan Fernando Ortega? This consummate singer/songwriter (cellist!) tops my list as “must listen”. He hails from New Mexico, and has numerous awards for his incredible discography in the past decades. A good introduction to his gentle humility wrapped in a soothing, pure voice is “I Need Thee Every Hour”.

<https://youtu.be/tZIMDcgrF-Q>

Another meaningful introduction to Ortega is “How Deep the Father’s Love”....

<https://youtu.be/dLDGVI8D5UU>

A signature song for this brother, sung by him at Ruth Bell Graham’s memorial service is “Give Me Jesus”... You will hear voices of Billy Graham and others interspersed in this video. Be blessed in this powerful rendition.

<https://youtu.be/vu2E2FUcliE>

The truth is, once you are drawn into the worship of our Lord through his music, you will want to access any of his albums for times of reflection, encouragement, and inspiration.

With love and gratitude, Holly

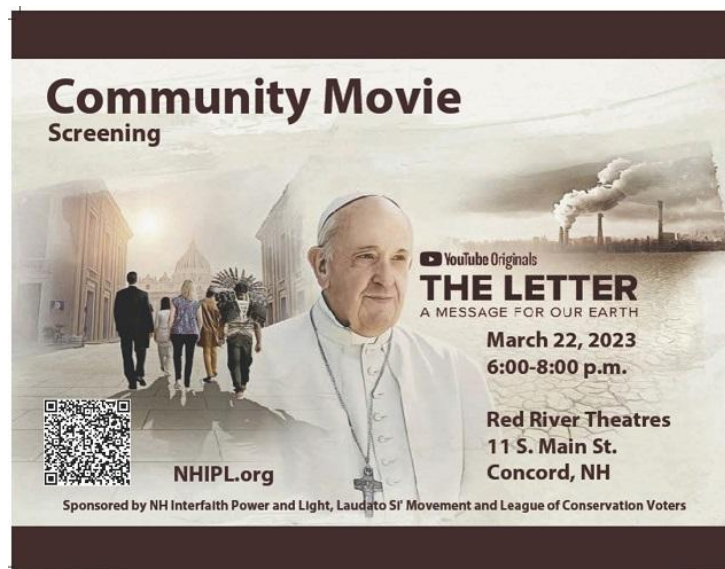

Stations of the Cross

You're invited to meditate on Jesus' journey to the Cross at Calvary in our sanctuary throughout Lent. The beautiful Stations of the Cross images and prayers are from Catholic Relief and were created by Brother Mickey McGrath. "I love to see faith in action," Brother Mickey says of his art. "Religion is something that inspires me. The work itself comes from that."

Housing Needed We have an All Saints' family who is in need of renting a home in the Governor Wentworth Regional School District this fall or early winter. Please speak with Pastor Bill if you have any leads. Thank you!

New Hampshire Interfaith Power and Light cordially invites you to a showing of The Letter on Wednesday, March 22 at the Red River Theater in Concord, NH. NH IPL's mission is to inspire and mobilize people of faith and conscience to take bold and just action on climate change. Every member of our NH community is needed to make a difference for Earth, our common home, to share our special skills and gifts in the work set before us. On March 22, 2023 we'll meet in the Red River Theatre in Concord, NH from 6:00 pm – 8:00 pm to watch and be inspired by *The Letter, the new documentary about how spiritual values unite us in the face of this planetary emergency. Following the movie there will be a panel discussion including Susan Hendershot, president of Interfaith Power and Light with ideas about how we can work together to bring a better future for us and those who will follow. For information and to register, go to: <https://www.nhipl.org/events>. There is no required fee to attend and donations are gratefully accepted. Sponsored by NH Interfaith Power and Light, the Laudato Si' Movement, and the League of Conservation Voters. Please share; look forward to seeing you there.

Thursday Bible Study

God of heaven and earth, before the foundation of the universe and the beginning of time you are the triune God: Author of creation, eternal Word of salvation, life-giving Spirit of wisdom.

Guide us to all truth by your Spirit, that we may proclaim all that Christ has revealed and rejoice in the glory he shares with us. Glory and praise to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

The Letter to the Hebrews is one of the more sophisticated New Testament writings, with the author connecting the Old Testament passages to the present concerns of the community of faith. We will gather Thursday afternoons at 3:00 pm in the Beck Memorial Library and online via Zoom to walk through this New Testament book examining the thematic questions: Who Is Jesus?, What Did Jesus Do?, What Is Faith?, How Shall We Live?, and What If Faith Fails?

Food Pantry Update

It has been a busier start to the year for the food pantry. To date we have served 742 families, a 33% increase, and 28,573 meals, a 50% increase year to date over 2022. Please pray for our food insecure neighbors, the L.I.F.E. Ministries Board, including Judy Cole and Carol Simpson from All Saints, and all the volunteers who greet and assist our neighbors in need on the first and third Wednesdays of the month.
