Good Shepherd Sunday and Abundant Life

Baptized Beloveds,

Abundant life is promised to those who follow Jesus. But what is meant by abundant life? Some Christians, and much of contemporary American culture, interpret an abundant life to mean the “good life” of many fine things, an opulent lifestyle. Much of our economy and leisure time revolves around consumerism—shopping and buying things which we hope will make us happier and our lives better. But an abundance of things does not necessarily lead to an abundant life.

The Fourth Sunday of Easter
Year A
April 30, 2023

Easter tide is a unique 50 day season of the church calendar ending with Pentecost. It is a festive continuation and observance of Christ's victory over sin, darkness, and death through his resurrection.

8:00 a.m. & 10:00 a.m., The Holy Eucharist, Rite II
The Rev. William Peterson, Celebrant
Holly Simons, Minister of Music

- Acts 2:42-47 The believers' common life
- 1 Peter 2:19-25 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not be in want
- John 10:1-10 Christ the shepherd
- Psalm 23 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not be in want

What does Jesus mean when he says that he came so that we may have an abundant life? Psalm 23 provides us with a good illustration of what Jesus is promising to his followers. The psalm imagines an abundant life not in material terms but in relational terms. An abundant life is one lived in the presence of God, in the company of the Lord. Whether one is in green pastures or the darkest valley, there is nothing to want, because God is present. We are in the gracious and generous care of our Lord through times of material abundance and in times of want and scarcity. This relationship between our Lord and us who are his followers is a relationship with one who knows us abundantly, who knows us by name, and who knows what we truly need to be fulfilled.

As we gather on this Good Shepherd Sunday, we'll hear how Jesus is the gateway through which we find abundant life. This metaphor offers us a chance to think about where we find abundant life through our faith in Jesus, even amid life's challenges. This image of Jesus as our shepherd reminds us that he is with us at all times, and our relationship with him provides us all we need.

Christ is Risen. He is Risen Indeed!

Bill+

P.S. Easter isn't just one day — it's 50! Rather than just being an extended celebration of Jesus' resurrection, the Easter season is a time of continued faith formation for all Christians. Today, we celebrate it as a time to rejoice and experience what we mean when we say Christ is risen and that we, as the church, are the body of the Risen Lord.

New Midweek Study for Eastertide:

The Collect of the Day

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Flower Dedication

The chancel flowers are dedicated in loving memory of Phil Wasmuth by Dianne Wasmuth

So what's with the cross? What does the cross say about God? What's the big deal? Did Jesus have to die?

During the season of Easter, you are invited to gather, in person in the Beck Memorial Library or online via Zoom, Thursday afternoons at 3:00-4:30 pm for an exciting study called Making Sense of the Cross. There is no expectation that you have certain prior knowledge of the Bible, or theology (how we think about God). Just bring your questions and openness to explore matters of the cross and resurrection of Jesus.

If you are not currently on the Midweek Bible Study and Eucharist e-mail list and would like to receive information prior to our meetings (not required), please contact the church office to be added. You are welcome to attend any or all of our sessions and the outline of topics follows:

- May 4th: Ransom and Victory
- May 11th: Substitution, Satisfaction, and Sacrifice
- May 18th: Example and Encouragement
- May 25th: Event and Experience

God loves you.
No exceptions.

The Episcopal Church Welcomes You.

From The Music Corner...

Calling all singers!

On Wednesday, May 10th and Sunday, May 14th, our choir is hosting a CHOIR INVITATIONAL! We are inviting any who would enjoy a group singing experience to come for ONE rehearsal and ONE Sunday, just for the joy of worshipping together musically without a lengthy commitment.

Whether your voice is weathered and rusty, or spritely and sweet, we want YOU to join us for a Sunday worship singing experience in the choir. The selections will be easily learned on Wednesday, May 10th at 6:30 pm, and then reviewed on Sunday, May 14th at 9 AM, followed by our livestream service at 10 AM.

As we celebrate Earth Day and the new life of spring, I hope to sing together "Creation will be at peace". All 4 parts are scrolling as you listen -- linked here for your listening pleasure.
