Jesus Does Not Abandon, But Abides

Baptized Beloveds,

Jesus does not abandon his followers. Through the Holy Spirit, Jesus comes to abide with his disciples of every generation. As Pentecost draws near, we are reminded that the risen Christ dwells in us as the Spirit of truth. We receive this Spirit in baptism* and pray that in our gathering around the Lord's table the Spirit will transform us to be the body of the risen Christ in the world.

*Next Sunday in our 10:00 am worship service we will receive two siblings in the waters of faith and forgiveness, and as 1 Peter states, this water of baptism saves you—not the removal of dirt from the body, so appeal to God for a clear conscience toward God. This water saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ on the Cross where we are united with him in death like

The Sixth Sunday of Easter
Year A
May 14, 2023

Easter tide is a unique 50 day season of the church calendar ending with Pentecost. It is a festive continuation and observance of Christ's victory over sin, darkness, and death through his resurrection.

his, so we will be united with him and be raised to new life like him. New life where we will live with Jesus and he will abide with us.

Christ is Risen. He is Risen Indeed!

Bill+

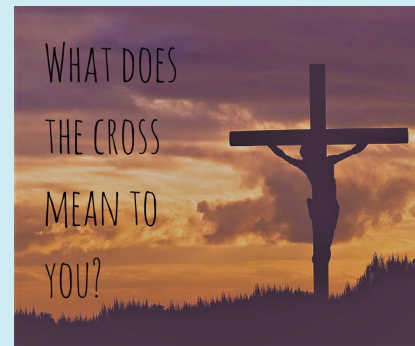

P.S. Easter isn't just one day — it's 50! Rather than just being an extended celebration of Jesus' resurrection, the Easter season is a time of continued faith formation for all Christians. Today, we celebrate it as a time to rejoice and experience what we mean when we say Christ is risen and that we, as the church, are the body of the Risen Lord.

So what's with the cross? What does the cross say about God?
What's the big deal? Did Jesus have to die?

During the season of Easter, you are invited to gather, in person in the Beck Memorial Library or online via Zoom, Thursday afternoons at 3:00-4:30 pm for an exciting study called Making Sense of the Cross. From The Music Corner...

Dear friends,

For some reason this song has been repeatedly resonating in my head this past week..... a theme of true friendship, and how I desire to look at all people I cross paths with. Clearlakes Chorale included this number in their concerts this past weekend, and I'm grateful.

Sing this to yourself, send it to some loved ones, and yes, even strangers or prickly people..... it brings a smile, and a realization that Fred Rogers knew he was speaking to all people, not just children, when he shared his thoughts and feelings in song and word.

“It’s You I Like”

“I hope that you’ll remember, even when you’re feeling blue, that it’s you I like, it’s you yourself, it’s you..... it’s you I like...”

If you, or someone you care about has a drinking problem, A.A. might have a solution for them. A.A. has helped more than two million alcoholics stop drinking. Recovery works through one alcoholic sharing their experience with another. Visit www.aa.org/ for more information.
