Dayenu (It would have been enough)

Beloved Saints and Sinners,

Pentecost is the crowning achievement of the Jesus story. Jesus meets the disciples and all people who are locked in their own places of fear and grief. While we gather on the first day of the week to celebrate the resurrection, those locked in grief and pain only see the world as it has been. Their stones have not been rolled away and they do not see the new life. Even the Risen One who stands among them needs to offer his life-giving invitation "Peace be with you" more than once.

This peace, this new life, this resurrection day brings peace, not retribution, and brings forgiveness, not vengeance. Jesus speaks peace and with this invitation to new life also comes the way to it:

- The gift of the Holy Spirit, breathed upon them and within them;
- The gift of the Holy Spirit to guide and

The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, on this day you opened sustain them;

· The peace which passes all understanding.

Just as Jesus—Emanuel—God with us was sent into the world, so now are the disciples and each of us sent as witnesses to God's love and saving work.

I imagine that those locked away disciples might have sung the "Dayenu" ("It would have been enough") from the Passover seder meal to give thanks for what God has done through the saving work of Jesus and the sustaining power of the Spirit...

· It would have been enough for the Word and wisdom of God to have been born in the flesh . . . Dayenu!

· It would have been enough for the Word to grow to adulthood and share his stunning parables about God's gracious activity in the world . . . Dayenu!

· It would have been enough for this Word to say to his enemies, "Father, forgive them" . . . Dayenu!

· It would have been enough for this Word to have died on a cross for us . . . Dayenu!

· It would have been enough that he rose again in blessing, not vengeance . . . Dayenu!

· But now, beyond what we would even expect—the Word becomes our word and it is written on our hearts at Pentecost . . . Dayenu!

Beloveds, it is enough, and more than enough to enflame our ministry of reconciliation in a world in need of a healing word.

In Jesus name and the power of the Holy Spirit,
Bill+

P.S. You are invited to wear RED on Sunday to celebrate Pentecost.

Celebrate Pentecost
WEAR RED THIS SUNDAY!

We celebrate the Feast of Pentecost THIS the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Prayer for Memorial Day

Almighty God, you are our strength and our shield. We give you thanks for the members of our armed forces past and present, and especially for those who have died while serving. May their sacrifices serve the cause of peace, and may our nation be ever grateful for their service. With your wisdom and strength guide our military's leaders and give to all people a desire for justice and peace. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

SUNDAY, May 28th and ask you to wear red to church that day as it is the liturgical color of the day. Our worship space will reflect the color as we remember the descent of the Holy Spirit on that first Day of Pentecost following the Resurrection and Ascension of the Lord Jesus Christ. Pentecost Sunday initiates a whole season of Pentecost, or Ordinary Time, in which we remember that the whole of the Christian life, indeed the whole life of the Church is 'pneumatic', that is fueled and furthered by the powerful work of the Holy Spirit.

God loves you.
No exceptions.

The Episcopal Church Welcomes You.

This week we pray for:

For our Parish

Howard Blaney, Linda Brown, Ann Champagne, Prue Fitts, Felicity Freund, Judy Hess, The Jeffers Family (Polly, Dave, Rachael), Zell Kellogg, Bhupendra & Judy Khetani, Jacqueline McLaughlin, Penny Meyer, Carol Pearson, Danielle Pierpont, Bree Schuette, Linda Snowden, Sebastian Tordonato.

For our Family & Friends

Rebecca DeNeault, Candy Desrocher, Michael Dowd, Anne Fish, Stephanie Fullam, Ruth Gray, Linda Hall, Susan Belt Hartson, Faye Juul, Margie, Tom Southern, Peggy Young.

Dear friends,

We approach a weekend full of reflection and remembrance coupled with awe and gratitude. Memorial Day gives us pause to ponder the ultimate sacrifice of one soul, and historically now millions of souls, who laid down their lives for others. Pentecost fills us with wonder as we rejoice in the gift of God's Spirit, which enables us to carry God's powerful Presence within us, without us, for every moment of our pilgrimage.

I'm linking you here to a powerful song (and gorgeous video) by Irish pastor/musician that reflects on a life well lived:

"When It's All Been Said and Done" <https://youtu.be/V2rjfabh49A>

I also encourage you to sink in to the marvelous music and texts this Sunday in services, as we focus on Pentecostal power and love.

And finally a short, simple poem of gratitude entitled "A Little Thankful Song":

For what are we thankful for? For this:

For the breath and the sunlight of life:

For the love of the child, and the kiss

On the lips of the mother and wife.

For roses entwining,

For bud and for bloom,

And hopes that are shining

Like stars in the gloom.

For what are we thankful for? For this:

The strength and the patience of toil;

For ever the dreams that are bliss—

The hope of the seed in the soil.

For souls that are whiter

From day unto day;

And lives that are brighter

From going God's way.

For what are we thankful for? For all:

The sunlight – the shadow – the song;

The blossoms may wither and fall,

But the world moves in music along!

For simple, sweet living,

("Tis love that doth teach it)

A heaven forgiving

And faith that can reach it!

(by Frank L. Stanton - Taken from "Poems that will change your life", Fall River Press, compiled in 2017)

Blessings and God's peace to you,

Holly

PS -- A reminder that TUESDAY, MAY 30th at 4:30 PM you are invited to a Music For Life voice and piano recital right here in our sanctuary.... Stay for refreshments as well!

The Bridge/Mahjong luncheon was a huge success.

Thank you to all for helping to make the luncheon such a successful event! Our guests really enjoyed their meal and spending time together all afternoon. We even had a few gentlemen join us this year. Many guests were hoping to do it again soon! Your food donations and hard work certainly paid off, as we raised well over $1,000 between the luncheon and raffle ticket sales! Thanks again for everything you do for All Saints Church and the surrounding community.

VESTRY NOTES

The Vestry met on Monday, May 15. We decided that a quick summary of our meeting is a good thing, so we are using a simply format and will each month. You are always welcome at our meetings which are held on the third Monday at 6:30 pm in the Library.

Highlight: -- Bill Woodard, our treasurer reported that we are ahead of budget by $330.00 at the end of April.

Challenge – The internal audit committee (Cate McMahon, Emily, Dunford, Skip Hancock) recommended we have an inventory of our belongings. This could be a video, photos, or list. A volunteer or two is needed to complete this task. Please see Pastor Bill.
Something to Anticipate – Some parish members may want to return to the Common Cup during Communion. Pastor Bill will be sharing information about how this may happen...soon!
