Trinity Sunday: Celebrating Our God beyond Understanding

Beloveds of the Holy One, Holy Three,

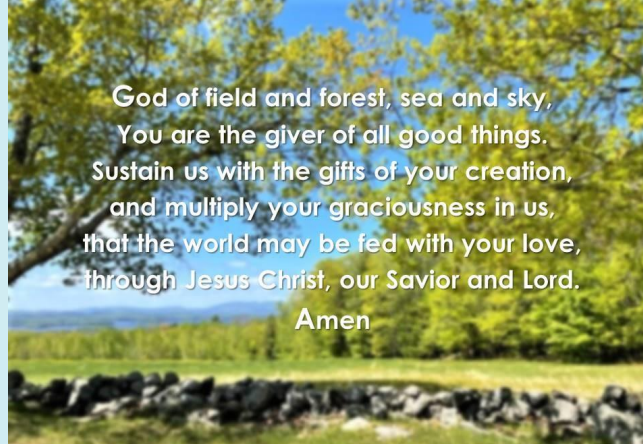

This Sunday we celebrate the festival of the Holy Trinity which is the wonder of relationship with God. This wondering may be limited by our human understanding of what God is, but we are beloved by God regardless of our understanding. Sunday we will try and guard against the idolatry of language as we survey our scripture, creeds, and symbols of our heritage to explore our three-in-one God who is the fountain of living water, the rock who gave us birth, our light and salvation.

Sunday's gospel contains one of the few biblical references to the trinitarian formula.

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

From The Music Corner...

Welcome to the month of June! And a huge THANK YOU to all who attended or went online to enjoy the spring recital (participants pictured above) of my Music For Life studio this past week. It was a very special event, with music filling the rafters, and especially our souls. If you missed it and want a taste, do use one of the following links to see the recording of these talented students.

As we welcome the days of warmth and sunshine, I leave you with a remastered rendering of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir reminding us that even as He clothes "The Lilies of the Field", how much more will our Lord feed and care for those who trust Him. This whole album (same title) is worth owning.

Blessings and joy,

Grateful for Pentecost Worship

A big thank you to all who helped make worship so Spirit-filled for the Feast of Pentecost on Sunday. Spectacular music, beautiful additions to our worship space, a soaring dove, readers who shared their language gifts and those who shared worship on social media! ## 2023 SUMMER FAIR UPDATES

June 12th- Parish Hall accepting donations

SUMMER FAIR UPDATE JUNE 4

With donations coming in next week, we are seeking sturdy boxes to help organize our book donations, as well as newspaper and packing paper to help organize our more fragile donations.

Donation sorting help will be needed from June 12 through July 11.

For members who would prefer to become a Fair Angel, please contact Pete or Sue Walker.

Thank you to everyone for making our Summer Fair a fundraising reality.

Return of the Common Cup as an Option

On Pentecost, following guidance from Bishop +Rob to clergy and discussion with our Worship and Music Team and Vestry, we began the option of receiving wine by common cup as we offer the option of gluten free bread during Holy Communion. The Eucharistic Ministers will continue to distribute wine via individual cups and if you desire the common cup*, please ask Pastor Bill (just as you would for gluten free).

*Note: For sanitation concerns and at the direction of our bishop, we will no longer offer the opportunity for Intinction (the dipping of the bread/wafer into the wine).

The common cup is only available for drinking from.

New Bible Study Begins Thursday, June 8th

We celebrate the Feast of Pentecost on May 28th and ask you to wear red to church that day as it is the liturgical color of the day. Our worship space will reflect the color as we remember the descent of the Holy Spirit on that first Day of Pentecost following the Resurrection and Ascension of the Lord Jesus Christ. Pentecost Sunday initiates a whole season of Pentecost, or Ordinary Time, in which we remember that the whole of the Christian life, indeed the whole life of the Church is 'pneumatic', that is fueled and furthered by the powerful work of the Holy Spirit.

VESTRY NOTES

The Vestry met on Monday, May 15. We decided that a quick summary of our meeting is a good thing, so we are using a simply format and will each month. You are always welcome at our meetings which are held on the third Monday at 6:30 pm in the Library.

Highlight: -- Bill Woodard, our treasurer reported that we are ahead of budget by $330.00 at the end of April.

Challenge – The internal audit committee (Cate McMahon, Emily, Dunford, Skip Hancock) recommended we have an inventory of our belongings. This could be a video, photos, or list. A volunteer or two is needed to complete this task. Please see Pastor Bill. Something to Anticipate – Some parish members may want to return to the Common Cup during Communion. Pastor Bill will be sharing information about how this may happen...soon!
