Ordinary Time
Extraordinary God

Beloveds of All Saints,

This Sunday we begin the almost six month season of the church year following Pentecost called Ordinary Time. You will notice a number of liturgical changes in worship during these beginning months and in particular, the Eucharistic Prayer which is also called The Great Thanksgiving, the anaphora, the prayer of consecration, and the canon of the Mass.

While the Book of Common Prayer and the authorized supplement Enriching Our Worship have a diversity and variety of Eucharistic prayers, you may remember earlier prayer books which had only one. In many parishes, Eucharistic prayers are chosen in light of the seasons or occasions of the church year. Liturgical scholars Samuel Wells and Abigail Kocher in their 2016 book Eucharistic Prayers, say that these prayers should be “a flame of holy fire kindled in the hearts of all who are gathered, stirring memories and hopes, evoking gratitude and exaltation, taking worshipers to heaven to sing with the angels and to Calvary to face the horror of the cross and

The Second Sunday
after Pentecost
Proper 5, Year A

8:00 a.m. & 10:00 a.m., The Holy Eucharist, Rite II

to the tomb to experience the wonder of the resurrection and to voice the groaning of creation and the dream of Christ's second coming, finally leaving the congregation lost in wonder, love, and praise."

We begin Ordinary Time with Eucharistic Prayer 3 which includes these powerful words:

And so remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Dying, you destroyed our death. Rising, you restored our life. Christ Jesus, come in glory!

And then we ask God to "grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice, and love." As we enter these weeks after Pentecost, may we remember that we are powered by the Spirit to live and share hope, justice and love, words that I need to hear again and again.

May this most ordinary of time show you our extraordinary God who meets us in Word and Sacrament,

Bill+

From The Music Corner...

Even as we enter "ordinary time" in our liturgical year, we acknowledge that there is nothing "ordinary" about it. We find sacred in the ordinary, from blazing sunsets, to gentle breezes with warming sunshine, to the greening and brilliant blossoming of our New England landscape. Everywhere we turn, God shouts His glory through what He has created.

A simple song that captures this well for me is entitled "Hallelujahs" by Chris Rice. May it bless you as well.

June blessings, joy and peace in our Creator God,

Holly

“When the Roses Speak, I Pay Attention”

By Mary Oliver

“As long as we are able to be extravagant we will be hugely and damply extravagant. Then we will drop foil by foil to the ground. This is our unalterable task, and we do it joyfully.”

And they went on. “Listen, the heart-shackles are not, as you think, death, illness, pain, unrequited hope, not loneliness, but lassitude, rue, vainglory, fear, anxiety, selfishness.”

Their fragrance all the while rising from their blind bodies, making me spin with joy.

The Promises of God for Generous People

God has more promises in the Bible about giving than anything else because God is a giver, and wants us to emulate God’s generosity. Everything we have in life is because of God’s extravagant generosity, but sharing what God blesses us with is hard to do. We are inherently selfishness and so God rewards us when we live generous lives. Generosity unlocks the key to God’s blessing in your life: “All goes well for the generous who conducts their business fairly” (Psalm 112:5); and when you model God’s generosity, God blesses you and your children: “The Godly are always generous. Their children will be blessed” (Psalm 37:26).

Return of the Common Cup as an Option

On Pentecost, following guidance from Bishop +Rob to clergy and discussion with our Worship and Music Team and Vestry, we began the option of receiving wine by common cup as we offer the option of gluten free bread during Holy Communion. The Eucharistic Ministers will continue to distribute wine via individual cups and if you desire the common cup*, please ask Pastor Bill (just as you would for gluten free).

*Note: For sanitation concerns and at the direction of our bishop, we will no longer offer the opportunity for Intinction (the dipping of the bread/wafer into the wine.

The common cup is only available for drinking from.

New Bible Study Begins Thursday, June 8th

We celebrate the Feast of Pentecost on May 28th and ask you to wear red to church that day as it is the liturgical color of the day. Our worship space will reflect the color as we remember the descent of the Holy Spirit on that first Day of Pentecost following the Resurrection and Ascension of the Lord Jesus Christ. Pentecost Sunday initiates a whole season of Pentecost, or Ordinary Time, in which we remember that the whole of the Christian life, indeed the whole life of the Church is 'pneumatic', that is fueled and furthered by the powerful work of the Holy Spirit.

VESTRY NOTES

The Vestry met on Monday, May 15. We decided that a quick summary of our meeting is a good thing, so we are using a simply format and will each month. You are always welcome at our meetings which are held on the third Monday at 6:30 pm in the Library.

Highlight: -- Bill Woodard, our treasurer reported that we are ahead of budget by $330.00 at the end of April.

Challenge – The internal audit committee (Cate McMahon, Emily, Dunford, Skip Hancock) recommended we have an inventory of our belongings. This could be a video, photos, or list. A volunteer or two is needed to complete this task. Please see Pastor Bill. Something to Anticipate – Some parish members may want to return to the Common Cup during Communion. Pastor Bill will be sharing information about how this may happen...soon!

-Clerk, Lyn Healy
