Beloveds of All Saints,

Throughout the Torah, God reminds the chosen people of Israel that they have been chosen in order to be a blessing to the world. The Israelites' status as "a priestly kingdom and a holy nation" (Exodus 19:6) is not a self-serving designation. Rather, their calling is to pursue justice and righteousness in order that the communities around them might also flourish. Similarly, in Sunday's gospel, Jesus invites his disciples to turn outward and work for the healing of communities to which they travel. We are invited to consider whether our chosen communities, including All Saints, exist primarily for the sake of members, or if they extend outward into the wider world.

In the gospel reading (Matthew 9:35-10:38), Jesus speaks of the church's mission with images drawn from daily life. The harvest is already plentiful, he says, but laborers are needed for work in the fields of daily life. All Saints Wolfeboro strives to be a vibrant faith community—walking the Way of Love together. Our mission is to share the teachings of Jesus and strive to live the Christian message of love and compassion through our thoughts, words and deeds.

How do we live out our mission? What are we to do? We are to do what our worship invites us to do: let our conversation be shaped by the good news, extend Christ's peace wherever we find ourselves, and share our bread with the hungry. Transformed by God's Word and Sacraments, we share the love of God by welcoming and caring for people who come through our doors and by going outside our doors to engage in thriving, powerful ministries that provide meaningful help to our community.

May you embody the love of God, living the church's mission each day,

Keep, O Lord, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

From The Music Corner...

Dear parish family,

Oh, to be 6 again, with the joy, energy and excitement of daily living..... birthdays are especially exciting, and Ralph and I enjoyed our first opportunity to celebrate a June 8th birthday with precious Grace, visiting from Moldova this month.

A follow-on to that thought is the propensity in our older years to simply feel, or be, weary, much of the time. This week, my own challenges to weariness brought me to the Isaiah 41:30 verses where I was reminded that our God never grows tired or weary.... And He enables US to "mount up with wings like eagles, to run and not be weary, to walk and not faint." Whatever your circumstances, may you be encouraged in God's strength this week, and be blessed by this contemporary worship song that brings the Isaiah verses to life.

Running and walking with you, in Christ's strength....

LGBTQIA+ In the Episcopal Church

<https://www.episcopalchurch.org/who-we-are/lgbtq/>

In the first century, Jesus of Nazareth inspired a movement. A community of people whose lives were centered on Jesus Christ and committed to living the way of God's unconditional, unselfish, sacrificial, and redemptive love. As Episcopalians, we believe in a loving, liberating, and life-giving God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

We believe in following the teachings of Jesus Christ, whose life, death and resurrection saved the world. We have a legacy of inclusion, aspiring to tell and exemplify God's love for every human being. Ordination and the offices of bishop, priest, and deacon are open to all without discrimination. Laypeople and clergy cooperate as leaders at all levels of our church. Leadership is a gift from God and can be expressed by all people in our church, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression. We believe that God loves us all – no exceptions.

Housing needed.

Wolfeboro has a new middle school band director! This young man is a recent graduate of SNHU and has been unable to find a place to live. He needs to find housing in the school district area no later than August 1. His home is in southeastern Massachusetts, so commuting is not an option. If you know of a possible apartment or other space that is available, even temporarily, please email me and I will pass on the information.

Thanks!

Juneteenth and the Emanuel Nine

Juneteenth speaks to God hearing the cries of enslaved people in America and setting into motion all that went into the freedom of enslaved people in the United States.” Juneteenth reminds us that we must try to understand and talk about American slavery and its legacies. It is the oldest nationally celebrated commemoration of the ending of slavery in the United States. Dating back to 1865, it was on June 19th that the Union soldiers, led by Major General Gordon Granger, landed at Galveston, Texas with news that the war had ended and that the enslaved were now free. Note that this was two and a half years after President Lincoln’s Emancipation Proclamation - which had become official January 1, 1863.

Emanuel Nine, martyrs, 2015. On June 17, 2015, Clementa C. Pinckney, Cynthia Marie Graham Hurd, Susie Jackson, Ethel Lee Lance, DePayne Middleton-Doctor, Tywanza Sanders, Daniel Lee Simmons, Sharonda Coleman-Singleton, and Myra Thompson were murdered by a self-professed white supremacist while they were gathered for

Bible study and prayer at the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church (often referred to as Mother Emanuel) in Charleston, South Carolina. We are called to repent of the sins of racism and white supremacy which continue to plague our society and pray for the peace which passes all understanding and breaks down walls of fear and hatred.

*O God, you made us in your own image and redeemed us through Jesus your Son: Look with compassion on the whole human family; take away the arrogance and hatred which infect our hearts; break down the walls that separate us; unite us in bonds of love; and work through our struggle and confusion to accomplish your purposes on earth; that, in your good time, all nations and races may serve you in harmony around your heavenly throne; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen. [BCP

Save the Date: Earth Care Family Fun Day Saturday, July 22nd

Families of New Hampshire churches, join us for a Family Fun Day at Elm Brook Park in Hopkinton this summer! Linden Rayton of Living Water Nature Programs and members of the diocesan Earth Care Commission Outdoors group are hosting this event. There will be games, water fun, outdoor worship, and a bring-your-own picnic lunch. There is no cost for this event but registration is required. All families are invited: parents, guardians, aunts and uncles, family friends, and all beloveds. We can't wait to see you there!

VESTRY NOTES

The Vestry met on Monday, May 15. We decided that a quick summary of our meeting is a good thing, so we are using a simply format and will each month. You are always welcome at our meetings which are held on the third Monday at 6:30 pm in the Library.

Highlight: -- Bill Woodard, our treasurer reported that we are ahead of budget by $330.00 at the end of April.

Challenge – The internal audit committee (Cate McMahon, Emily, Dunford, Skip Hancock) recommended we have an inventory of our belongings. This could be a video, photos, or list. A volunteer or two is needed to complete this task. Please see Pastor Bill. Something to Anticipate – Some parish members may want to return to the Common Cup during Communion. Pastor Bill will be sharing information about how this may happen...soon!
