Beloveds of All Saints,

The texts for Sunday are filled with discomfort. This discomfort, however, is for the sake of the prophetic task and the gospel being known. Leaning into the biblical words of this challenge, I'm reminded of a quote from Archbishop Oscar Romero that instills a great sense of urgency amidst discomfort:

“A church that doesn’t provoke any crises, a gospel that doesn’t unsettle, a word of God that doesn’t get under anyone’s skin, a word of God that doesn’t touch the real sin of the society in which it is being proclaimed— what gospel is that?” (Oscar Romero, The Violence of Love, Harper & Row, 1988, p. 44)

The Archbishop experienced the abandonment of friends and family, death threats, and ultimately assassination. But he embodied the call to serve as a prophet and to live the gospel, even as it was contrary to the comforts and interrelationships of this world. His life and example remind that even in times of challenge, God is present— always.

God does not promise that the path of the disciple will be easy and in the Hebrew Bible reading Sunday, the prophet Jeremiah feels the pain of rejection from those who do not want to hear what he has to say. Then in Matthew, Jesus declares that his words may bring stark division. Yet we need not be afraid, because God accounts for each hair on our heads. Though we too may experience rejection, frustration, division, and death—God’s grace and love make us a new creation each day.

May you know the power and presence of God,
Bill+

From The Music Corner...

".... And if you close your eyes, a river, a silent and beautiful current, fills you from within...."

A challenge to you this week. Experience the music. Pause. Follow the text below. Drink in the themes of water, night, silence, musk ... the contemporary thread of musical harmonies; and especially the wonder of thousands of people from around our globe singing TOGETHER..... virtually united in this unusual experience. Feel the HOPE. Eric Whitacre has orchestrated and produced videos like no other composer in our time. The song itself is only 4 minutes, but you must keep scrolling (as moving music continues to play) while you view hundreds, then thousands of names from almost every country on the planet who willingly said "yes" to this project.

"Water Night" by Eric Whitacre

<https://youtu.be/V3rRaL-Czxw>

Night with the eyes of a horse that trembles in the night,

Night with eyes of water in the field asleep

Is in your eyes, a horse that trembles is in

Your eyes of secret water.

Eyes of shadow-water, Eyes of well-water,

Eyes of dream-water.

Silence and solitude,

Two little animals moon-led,

Drink in your eyes,

Drink in those waters.

If you open your eyes, night opens doors of musk ,

The secret kingdom of the water opens

Flowing from the center of the night.

And if you close your eyes,

*A river, a silent and beautiful current, fills you from within, Flows forward,
darkens you:*

Night brings its wetness to beaches in your soul.

May God's Beauty and Mystery fill you in this summer solstice week.....

2023 UTO Grant Awards

By Joyce Landers, UTO Board Vice President

The United Thank Offering Board is very excited to announce the 2023 grant recipients. We wish to congratulate the 2023 grant recipients and the important work they are doing to spread the kingdom of God here on earth. The full list of 2023 grant awards is available at: <https://www.episcopalchurch.org/ministries/united-thank-offering/>

This year the grants addressed the worldwide incarceration crisis; projects funded included jobs for returning citizens, prevention programs which address job training skills for those at risk of incarceration, projects supporting the children of incarcerated people, and hospice care inside prisons.

Each year, the UTO Board works diligently to read and score the grants as objectively as possible. The decisions we make are not easy. We celebrate with those who are funded and mourn those worthy projects we were unable to support. The total ingathering from 2022 was $1,079,600.54, which enabled us to fund 22 projects. However, we received 49 applications totaling about $2.6 million. It is our hope that we can all work together to increase the practice of gratitude and giving to UTO so we can support more grants in the future.

2023 UTO Grants at a Glance

of Grants Awards to The Episcopal Church – 10

of Grants Awards to the Anglican Communion – 12

Largest Award – $100,000 to the Episcopal Diocese of Chicago for St. Leonard's Ministries & St. Andrew's Church

Smallest Award – $1,207 to the Southern Diocese of Brazil for music apprenticeship courses for vulnerable children

Average Amount Award = $49,000

Over the next 3 years, The United Thank Offering, in the spirit of Matthew 25:36, will focus on areas of ministry that serve those who society has left out and left behind. Therefore, the UTO grant focus for 2024 will be on “the stranger” Jesus mentions, offering welcome and inclusivity. This includes funding innovative mission ministry projects that:

- welcome people with differences that cause isolation (culture, life experience, disability, mental health, etc.) in new ways that are meaningful and deemed necessary by that community.
- encourage truth telling, acknowledging historic trauma, and establishing a pathway towards healing.
