Anniversaries this week

Beloveds of All Saints,

When one hears the word “yoke”, it often makes us think of eggs. But in the gospel for Sunday, the yoke refers to the wooden neck brace that helps two oxen pull their load together. We as followers of Jesus are yoked to the family of God, the body of Christ the Church, and one another at Baptism. Through the baptismal waters of faith and forgiveness, and at the table, we are reminded of our being yoked as we are strengthened to join with Jesus to carry heavy burdens for the sake of the world.

This week, I’m pleased to share that The Rev. Elizabeth Preysner is now officially yoked to us, the people God has gathered to do God’s kin-dom work in this time and place. Yoking helps the connected share in the burdens as well as the benefits of doing God’s work. There is an article later in this e-newsletter that describes this

The Rev. Elizabeth Preysner Named Priest Associate

With the blessing of Bishop +Rob and the vestry, our rector has named Elizabeth Preysner priest associate at All Saints. A priest associate is a priest whose full-time ministry is outside the parish but who is assigned or attached to an altar within a parish community. As a priest associate, Liz will be with us during summers in a non-stipendiary role to share in worship as well as bible study, our community book group Wolfeboro Reads, and other areas of ministry of interest to her. During the academic year Liz serves as the Associate Chaplain at St. Andrew's School in Middletown, DE, where she teaches Religious Studies and Spanish.

A graduate of Yale University Divinity School whose diaconal ordination was held here at All Saints during the pandemic, she has taught Spanish at Tilton School and English at the University of New Hampshire. Liz and husband Sam Ingraham are familiar faces to us as for the past ten summers, she has taught writing and literature for the Royal Thai Scholars Program at Brewster Academy, and they are building a house

The Collect of the Day

O God, you have taught us to keep all your commandments by loving you and our neighbor: Grant us the grace of your Holy Spirit, that we may be devoted to you with our whole heart, and united to one another with pure affection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Flower Dedication

The chancel flowers are given in loving memory of James & Norma Love by Candace Tordonato.

here in Wolfeboro. In addition to a Master of Divinity from Yale, Liz has a master's in English Literature from the University of New Hampshire, a bachelor's in English and Hispanic Studies from Trinity College, and has completed coursework abroad in Argentina and Spain.

From The Music Corner...

On Vacation
See you in a week!

Your copy should address 3 key questions: Who am I writing for? (Audience) Why should they care? (Benefit) What do I want them to do here? (Call-to-Action)

Create a great offer by adding words like "free" "personalized" "complimentary" or "customized." A sense of urgency often helps readers take an action, so think about inserting phrases like "for a limited time only" or "only 7 remaining"!

WE HOPE YOU CAN JOIN US!

Thank you to all who serve as greeters and ushers! If you are available to help welcome and guide worshippers during our busy summer season, please contact the church office. Thank you!

Independence and Civil Discourse

There used to be a wise saying about arguments that helped keep things civil. One party or the other would say, “I disagree with what you say, but I defend with my life your right to say it.”

That sounds downright quaint in today’s climate, where partisans are more likely to say, “I disagree with what you say, and you are evil and have no right to that opinion!”

This month, as we celebrate Independence Day, we can relish the freedoms we take for granted, including freedom of speech, religion, and assembly. At the same time, as Christians we remember Jesus’ commands not only to love our neighbors as ourselves (Mark 12:31) but also to do unto others as we would have them do to us (Matthew 7:12). The “neighbors” and “others” certainly include those who hold different ideas on issues of the day.

How can we celebrate our freedom of expression in the context of Jesus’ commands?

- Listen carefully, being open to another person’s ideas.
- Respond thoughtfully and calmly, citing facts to support your argument.
- Do not attack the person, only the ideas.
- If things get too heated, discontinue the discussion.
- Remember the wise old saying, “I disagree with what you say, but I defend with my life your right to say it.”

We are stewards of our relationships with our neighbors. As followers of Jesus, we can be stewards of civility and lead our country to calmer, more amicable times.

New to All Saints... Get Connected and Grow Deeper

The people God has gathered as All Saints’ are grateful for all the newcomers in our midst! We hope you have found us welcoming and hospitable. We are grateful for your presence, gifts, energy, and ideas.

Whether you’ve started, or you’ve been attending for a little while, or for years, you’re welcome to formally join All Saints. A new member class with Pastor Bill is scheduled for two Sundays, July 30th and August 6th from 9:00 to 9:45 am in the Beck Memorial Library. We will get to know each other, learn about All Saints' mission and ministry, how we follow the Way of Jesus, and answer any questions about the Episcopal Church. The following Sunday, August 13, we will have a liturgy of welcome to formally welcome new members to our faith community. Please contact the Church Office to register for the class and check with our Parish Administrator Debra Hoyt to have your information on file at (603) 569-3454 or allsaints@metrocast.net.

VESTRY NOTES

The Vestry met on Monday, June 9th. Here's a quick summary of our meeting. Please ask questions of any member if you'd like more information.

Celebrate: -- Sunday School completed a successful year under the guidance of Danielle Pierpont. Thanks to Kay, Arlene, Mary, and Carolyn who were her helpers and to the children who attended faithfully.

Challenge – The elevator has been presenting some noisy rides and interesting experiences. We hope it will be fixed in the next few weeks.

Something to Anticipate – On Sunday, August 20, we will have one service at 9:00am followed by a brunch at 10:00am. We'd like to update you on progress our parish has made this year on our finances and some of the other great ideas from the January brainstorming brunch.

-Clerk, Lyn Healy
