Beloveds of All Saints,

As I write this, it appears that the weather for the 61st Annual All Saints' Summer Fair will be cloudy and warm, rather than stormy and wet like so much of the past month. If you love rain, fear not, Sunday's readings remind us that God's word is like the rain that waters the earth and brings forth vegetation. Rain, like God's word is also like the sower who scatters seed indiscriminately. Our lives too are like seeds sown in the earth because even from what appears to be little, dormant, or dead, God promises a harvest.

God promises a harvest is echoed when we gather at the Lord's table and are fed with the bread of life, so we may bear fruit in the world. It is echoed in the offering of our individual gifts that make it possible to live out our mission and ministry as All Saints' in this time and place. As we participate in the kin-dom of God, as workers in God's garden, we are called to share more than our financial gifts. We are called and invited by God to participate in the work of Jesus with our creativity, efforts, experience, money, prayer, and wisdom.

It takes more than a monetary budget to do God's work—it takes the whole body of Christ and all its constituent parts. As followers of Jesus, we're called, invited and sustained in community to be "all in" as we walk the Way of Love. Our harvest commitment is communal and contagious. It will be tangible this weekend as we share our gifts through the summer fair, worship and church cook-out. While it will be busy and intense, may you be renewed as we engage in kin-dom work serving Jesus Christ in all persons, and loving our neighbors as ourselves.

May your sharing this weekend be a sacred gift of grace,
Bill+

An abundant life focuses on what you can do.
A scarcity mindset focuses on what you can't.
That's the difference between trusting in God's promises and living in despair.

The Collect of the Day

O Lord, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Flower Dedication

The chancel flowers are given in the glory of God

Your copy should address 3 key questions: Who am I writing for? (Audience) Why should they care? (Benefit) What do I want them to do here? (Call-to-Action)

Create a great offer by adding words like "free" "personalized" "complimentary" or "customized." A sense of urgency often helps readers take an action, so think about inserting phrases like "for a limited time only" or "only 7 remaining"!

God loves you. No exceptions.

The Episcopal Church Welcomes You.

2023 SUMMER FAIR UPDATES

SUMMER FAIR FOLLOW-UP

Volunteers with large trucks will be needed to help our Strong Arms Team move the remaining unsold items.

We hope to further donate those items and deliver them to Good Will in Concord on Monday, July 17.

A HEARTY THANK YOU
TO ALL WHO MADE
THIS YEAR'S SUMMER FAIR
SUCH A SUCCESSFUL ONE!

I want to thank Pastor Bill and all members of the vestry for giving me the opportunity and honor to start again Sunday School last September 2022.

I would not have been able to do this without Sunday School helpers due to the Episcopal Church's important emphasis on implementing what is called Safe Church.

Even if someone came only once to help it has meant so much to me and therefore to the children too. Many thanks to Susan McDonald, Sarah Day, Connie Mitchell, Emily Dunford, Morgan Williams, Kay Petersen, Arlene Salzgeber, Carolyn Sundquist, Mary Bertsch.

I want to also thank Pam Hance for her donation of a huge stack of colored sheets of paper. I thank Liz Rice Lopez for baking her wonderful cookies and cupcakes. I thank Morgan Williams for her donation of lots of scotch tape, tape holders and school glue.

I thank all the ushers who came to knock on our door letting us know it was time to go upstairs and share the Lord's Supper.

Debra Hoyt, I keep reminding people that I did not do all the classroom decorating artwork, YOU did and we are so grateful for all you do. Finally, most importantly we thank you dear Heavenly Father for the gift of your Holy Spirit who encourages us all.

We remember your Son Jesus' emphasis on the importance of children: they are indeed our future disciples and Sunday School teachers as they grow in their faith.

May God continue to bless you for having been a great blessing!

Danielle Pierpont

New to All Saints... Get Connected and Grow Deeper

The people God has gathered as All Saints' are grateful for all the newcomers in our midst! We hope you have found us welcoming and hospitable. We are grateful for your presence, gifts, energy, and ideas.

Whether you've started, or you've been attending for a little while, or for years, you're welcome to formally join All Saints. A new member class with Pastor Bill is scheduled for two Sundays, July 30th and August 6th from 9:00 to 9:45 am in the Beck Memorial Library. We will get to know each other, learn about All Saints' mission and ministry, how we follow the Way of Jesus, and answer any questions about the Episcopal Church. The following Sunday, August 13, we will have a liturgy of welcome to formally welcome new members to our faith community. Please contact the Church Office to register for the class and check with our Parish Administrator Debra Hoyt to have your information on file at (603) 569-3454 or allsaints@metrocast.net.

VESTRY NOTES

The Vestry met on Monday, June 9th. Here's a quick summary of our meeting. Please ask questions of any member if you'd like more information.

Celebrate: -- Sunday School completed a successful year under the guidance of Danielle Pierpont. Thanks to Kay, Arlene, Mary, and Carolyn who were her helpers and to the children who attended faithfully.

Challenge – The elevator has been presenting some noisy rides and interesting experiences. We hope it will be fixed in the next few weeks.

Something to Anticipate – On Sunday, August 20, we will have one service at 9:00am followed by a brunch at 10:00am. We'd like to update you on progress our parish has made this year on our finances and some of the other great ideas from the January brainstorming brunch.

-Clerk, Lyn Healy
