Dying to be Rich

“All is vanity and a chasing after wind,” says Ecclesiastes, yet we chase wealth like it will last forever, forgetting that we ourselves will one day die and that everything we have stored up here will be useless to us. Into the tragedy of our human drive to be rich in possessions, even at the cost of being poor in everything else, Jesus tells the parable of the rich fool. It is first told to brothers squabbling over an inheritance, and now it is told to us, some of us squabbling with our relatives or neighbors over wealth and possessions. The rich fool, despite his great wealth, is poor in every other way, eating alone, and even dying alone. In Jesus’ depiction of this fool our own sinful hearts are exposed. We too vainly chase after even more, sacrificing right relationship with God and neighbor in the process.

Death comes to the rich fool when he least expects it, as it must come to all of us. How, then, are we to be “rich toward God”? Paul reminds the Colossian Christians of their own unexpected deaths in the waters of baptism: “you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.” In baptism we are joined to Christ’s death, and we are to be dead to all foolish chasing after more possessions. We have died, not alone, but with Christ. Our lives now are hidden with Christ in God, and in Christ we share a fortune of true riches that also are good for our neighbors. Death will come, but our treasure is already secure. By faith we have acquired abounding riches above, and by faith we are freed from storing up treasures for ourselves here on earth. Sunday we will welcome The Rev. Elizabeth Preysner who will preach and I will be the celebrant, see you in worship!

Grace and Peace,

The Collect for the Eighth Sunday after Pentecost

Let your continual mercy, O Lord, cleanse and defend your Church; and, because it cannot continue in safety without your help, protect and govern it always by your goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Ecclesiastes 1:2, 12–14; 2:18–23 – Search out wisdom, for all is vanity.

Psalm 49:1–11 – My mouth shall speak of wisdom.

Colossians 3:1–11 – Clothed in Christ, your life is hidden with him in God.

Luke 12:13–21 – Jesus says: Be on guard against greed; be rich toward God, your treasure.

God loves you.
No exceptions.

The Episcopal Church Welcomes You.

This week we pray for:

A Prayer for those who are incarcerated

Mighty God, merciful and just: we pray for our jails, prisons, and detention centers, that they be places of fair and humane treatment for all. Lead us to end solitary confinement and other cruel and demeaning practices. Guide police and corrections officers, attorneys and judges to use wisely the power entrusted to them. Inspire prison worshiping communities and chaplains. Rouse us to eradicate racism, corruption, and greed in the criminal justice system. By your Spirit, transform our society, that the dignity and worth of every incarcerated person be honored. We ask this through your resurrected Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

For our Parish

Praying with the Bishops of the Anglican Communion at Lambeth

Every bishop of the Anglican Communion is invited to the Lambeth Conference – which is convened by The Archbishop of Canterbury and is gathered July 26-August 8th this year. The Lambeth Conference has met since 1867, happens once-a-decade and is a significant event in the life of the Anglican Communion. The conference will explore church and world affairs. Outcomes of the conference will shape the life of the Anglican Communion in the decade ahead.

The Anglican Communion (of which we in the Episcopal Church are a part of) is present in 165 countries around the world and serving millions of Christians worldwide, the Anglican Communion is a network of independent and interdependent churches. Please pray for the bishops attending, including our Bishop Rob, and the churches and communities they represent around the world.

Gracious God, we thank you that in Jesus you reconcile the world and all who are in it to yourself. Touch the hearts of those attending the Lambeth Conference to extend your peace to all, and to work for the reconciliation of all creation. Bless them with your grace and love as they connect with one another and with you. May your Spirit of peace hover over their conversations and their resting times, and may your gracious will be done in the life of the Anglican Communion and in the whole of your precious world. In the name of Jesus Christ, our Prince of Peace. Amen.

From The Music Corner...

Hello friends!

The flower beds in front of the Huggins front entrance are lovely! It is a welcome blessing to see them flourishing so beautifully.... as well as the many other gardens around our town that are tended so lovingly and regularly. Oh, the beauty we are given everywhere we turn.

This week our family from Eastern Europe has arrived for their NH vacation. We are so thankful they can share some moments with all of us as we connect off and on in the next 3 weeks. Rachel's husband, Vitali, has not been Stateside for 3 years, so this is a special reunion for us with him.

This Sunday, you will hear the choir share an anthem entitled "Assurance", based on the hymn "Blessed Assurance" by prolific gospel hymnwriter, Fanny Crosby (she wrote over 8,000 hymns in her lifetime - 1820 to 1915), and this hymn is certainly a favorite for many. We will sing it as a congregation at the end of service (7/31).

Listen to these 5 young men sing an amazing acappella version, overlooking glorious mountain scenery!

Sunday School

We are looking forward to regathering our Sunday School for our pre and early elementary school students in September and need your help! No experience is needed—just a love of children and a big sense of humor—because serving on this ministry team will make your heart smile. Teachers can be High School Seniors to Life Seniors, and we'll hold a planning meeting in August. Please let Pastor Bill know if you are interested in helping with faith formation for our youngest saints.

We encourage your dedication of Altar Flowers in loving memory of or in thanksgiving for loved ones or friends.

Altar Flower Dedication slips can be found on the resource table outside the parish office and on the Flower Chart in the Parish Hall.

Please provide a slip to the office for your dedication to ensure that this is recognized in the bulletin. Also, please check the altar flower chart in the Parish Hall for available dates and mark the date for your request.

Please consider brewing some coffee when you arrive early for worship on Sunday. All that is needed is to make a couple pots of coffee and put out some coffee cups. Please sign up on the Parish Hall bulletin board.

Be a Greeter!

Please consider participating as a Greeter at Sunday's Worship. The most important role of a greeter is to make sure all are welcome. Let's make sure visitors feel welcome and know how to get to the service.

Please give your name to the Parish office for rotation.

Thursday Bible Study

We are currently studying the Book of Exodus. If you have not received the Thursday Afternoon Bible Study e-mails before and would like to be added, please share your e-mail with Pastor Bill.

The message of Exodus is of God acting to free a powerless people and bring them into covenant relationship. This event reveals God's faithfulness to Israel and to Egypt and all other nations of the world as well. The exodus is so important that it is even used to describe who God is: "I am the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery" (Exodus 20:2). The people become the Lord's "treasured possession out of all the people's," "a priestly kingdom," and "a holy nation" (Exodus 19:5-6) and receive the Torah to show them how to live in relationship with this gracious and liberating God through the everyday activities of life.
