Many Members One Body

"For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ."
1 Corinthians 12:12

Beloveds of All Saints,

Sunday is our One Service Sunday followed by Sunday Brunch starting at 9:00 am. So sleep in 8 o'clockers, or set your alarms an hour earlier 10 o'clockers and bring your favorite brunch item to share as our many members gather and get to know one another better as one body.

Worship is a central aspect of building a sense of unity and fellowship within a faith community. Multiple worship times sometimes leads to fragmented congregations because of fewer opportunities to interact and build relationships with members attending other services. Our One Service Sunday this week is an effort to foster a unified sense of identity and connection for all members of our one body.

In the reading from Isaiah on Sunday, we'll hear that God's house shall be a house of prayer for all people and that God will gather the fragments of Israel. Then we'll meet the woman in the gospel reading who is a Gentile, an outsider, and is unflinching in her request that Jesus heal her daughter. As Jesus commends her bold faith, it raises the question: how might All Saints' extend our mission to those on the margins of society?

See you as we gather around word and meal to receive the gifts to be signs of comfort, healing, and justice for those in need!

The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you have given your only Son to be for us a sacrifice for sin, and also an example of godly life: Give us grace to receive thankfully the fruits of his redeeming work, and to follow daily in the blessed steps of his most holy life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Flower Dedication

The chancel flowers are dedicated in loving memory of Rev. Leon and Eleanor Cone by Ralph & Holly Simons.

Hosted by All Saints' Church with Pastor Bill Petersen and Music Minister Holly Simons

From The Music Corner...

Soon we will gather as a parish to worship, eat brunch, and ponder together direction and needs of our community. This, along with the fact that August 18th is the birthday of my dear mother, Ellie Cone, (now rejoicing in heaven!) is giving me pause to reflect more deeply on the words of Zephaniah 3:17 - "The Lord your God is with you, He is mighty to save. He will take great delight in you, He will quiet you with His love, he will rejoice over you with singing!"

This week, ponder that our Almighty God is DELIGHTED in you, and REJOICES over you with singing..... let this truth sink down deep. Indeed, he delights in our church, and rejoices over all of us with song! The choir will highlight this truth in our anthem this week entitled "And the Father will dance"... It has become a choir favorite over the years. Listen to this meaningful rendition, and feel the breeze as God's Spirit dances and whirls around your daily life...

The 7 Deadly Sins of
WHITE CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM
A CALL TO ACTION

CARTER HEYWARD

The Seven Deadly Sins of White Christian Nationalism: A Call to Action with The Rev. Dr. Carter Hayward

Tuesday, August 29th In-person in Concord, NH Sponsored by the NH Council of Churches, the Episcopal Church of NH Reconciliation Commission, and the NH Conference of the UCC. There is no cost, but registration is required. Space is limited, so don't delay.

In partnership with the NH Council of Churches, we are thrilled to announce our summer keynote event: The Seven Deadly Sins of White Christian Nationalism: A Call to Action. We are excited to welcome the Rev. Dr. Carter Hayward to New Hampshire on August 29.

In a time of rising hate activity across our state, Rev. Dr. Heyward will speak about her book, The Seven Deadly Sins of White Christian Nationalism, and share action steps to take in our churches and communities.

There will be an opportunity to spend time together in both small and large groups, and to connect with other voices of faith from across the state who are also interested in doing this work. The day-long seminar will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. with a keynote address at 6:30 p.m.

Click <https://www.nhcucc.info/event-details/lecture-seminar-with-carter-heyward> to register.

VESTRY NOTES

The Vestry met on Monday, August 7th. Here's a quick summary of our meeting. Please ask questions of any member if you'd like more information.

Celebrate: The summer fair was a prime example of the time and talent members of our parish donate to a project. What a success! From hours spent sorting, to the many wonderful donations, to the work from setting up tables to re-donating items on fair day, to the culmination in a cook-in on Sunday, this year's fair was a huge success.

Challenge – There are so many opportunities to contribute your time and talent at All Saints: for example, Gardeners, Greeters and (Altar) Guilders are really needed right now! Please see Pastor Bill.

Something to Anticipate – On Sunday September 17th, we will have our first "Sundae Sunday" following each service. Plan to attend to enjoy something yummy and learn about the many ministries at All Saints and consider sharing your talents to one (or more) of the groups!

New Thursday Afternoon Study for August

The Rev. Liz Preysner will facilitate our Thursday afternoon study at 3:00 pm in the Beck Memorial Library and online via Zoom during August. She will guide us in exploring the intersection of faith and poetry with the works of Anglican poets like John Donne and George Herbert. Mid-week Eucharist follows the study; we hope you can join us!

Wolfeboro Reads

Please join us for our community book group as we gather via Zoom on Tuesdays 4:00-5:15 pm for reflection and discussion. The Wolfeboro Public Library and Country Bookseller have our lists.
