In this Sunday's parable, Jesus urges us to be as resourceful and pragmatic in our spiritual lives — just as shrewd
as we are in our economic lives.

It directly tackles the basic question underneath all financial giving:
What is money for?

Love or Money?

A rich landowner tells his unsatisfactory manager he's going to fire him. We don't know how long the employee had to clear his desk, but apparently it was long enough to win friends and influence the people who had accounts with his boss. The manager called them in and reduced their debt. When the boss heard about it, for some reason he didn't call his lawyer but sat back and laughed in admiration.

How could Jesus tell a story where the main character is a crook? Why did the boss commend the bad manager? What is Jesus trying to tell us? This parable can be difficult for us to interpret. Perhaps, it is a story about something ordinary, with a surprise or twist that leads us to experience reality in a new way, so that it

Links to the Readings for Fifteenth Sunday After Pentecost

Amos 8:4-7 - Warnings to those who trample on the needy and poor

Psalm 113 - The Lord lifts up the poor from the ashes

1 Timothy 2:1-7 - One God, one mediator—Christ Jesus—who gave himself for all people

Luke 16:1-13 - A shrewd manager: faithful in little, faithful in much; serving God/wealth may even transform our daily living. The surprise in this parable is not the manager's self-serving behavior, as we've seen for ourselves in some corporate accounting scandals in the news. The surprise is the boss showing mercy.

Does this boss remind you of someone? Maybe the landowner in another parable who pays a full day's wage to farm workers who spent barely one hour in the vineyard? The father running out to welcome a shamed and destitute, long-lost son? Or someone who's been in the news lately? Is there any way that he reminds you of God?

In God's economy, people matter more than profits. The prophet (first reading), the psalmist, and Jesus, telling the parable, agree on this. The epistle writer adds a prayer for "a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity" for everyone, boss and beggar alike. [Sundays and Seasons, 2022]

The Collect for the Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Beloveds,

Sunday we welcome Bishop Rob at both worship services. We will renew our baptismal covenants at 8:00 am and confirm Emily Dunford, Aiden Schuette Simon, and Ben Wright, and receive Alex Dunford and Stephen Beckwith at 10:00 am. Coffee hours follow both services to meet and greet the Bishop.

Hope to see you Sunday!

God loves you.
No exceptions.

A Prayer for Mental Illness

Mighty God, in Jesus Christ you know the spirits that cloud our minds and set us against ourselves. Comfort those who are torn by conflict, cast down, or lost in worlds of illusion. By your power, drive from us the powers that shake confidence and shatter love. Tame unruly forces within us, and bring us to your truth, so that we may know peace and accept ourselves as your beloved children in Jesus Christ. Amen.

NAMI New Hampshire is a grassroots organization working to improve the lives of all people affected by mental illness and suicide through support, education and advocacy.

Thursday Bible Study

We are currently studying the Book of Exodus. If you have not received the Thursday Afternoon Bible Study e-mails before and would like to be added, please share your e-mail with Pastor Bill.

The message of Exodus is of God acting to free a powerless people and bring them into covenant relationship. This event reveals God’s faithfulness to Israel and to Egypt and all other nations of the world as well. The exodus is so important that it is even used to describe who God is: “I am the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery” (Exodus 20:2). The people become the Lord’s “treasured possession out of all the people’s,” “a priestly kingdom,” and “a holy nation” (Exodus 19:5-6) and receive the Torah to show them how to live in relationship with this gracious and liberating God through the everyday activities of life.
