For the Beauty of the Earth

Beloveds,

I've been spending lots of time in this Season of Creation observing and sharing great gratitude for the corner of creation we are blessed to call home. From Wolfeboro Reads, where Tuesday afternoons have been spend journeying with author Lynda Rutledge as she weaves a wonderful novel West With Giraffes based on the true story of two giraffes who survived the hurricane of 1938 and made headlines as they traveled across depression-era America to the San Diego Zoo—to sharing the wonder of creation and pondering Julian of Norwich with assisted living folks at Sugar Hill—the beauty and wonder of creation has enveloped us as abundantly as the brilliant falling leaves of autumn.

Fittingly, at Wolfeboro Reads, we used Cecil alexander's 1848 hymn lyrics from

Jeremiah 14:7-10,19-22 - Jerusalem will be defeated

Psalms 84:1-6 - Happy are the people whose strength is in you

2 Timothy 4:6-8,16-18 - The good fight of faith

Luke 18:9-14 - A Pharisee and tax collector pray together

“All Things Bright and Beautiful” for our opening prayer:

All things bright and beautiful, All creatures great and small,

All things wise and wonderful: The Lord God made them all.

Each little flower that opens, Each little bird that sings,

He made their glowing colors, He made their tiny wings.

He gave us eyes to see them, And lips that we might tell

How great is God Almighty, Who has made all things well.

And for mid-week Eucharist on Thursdays at 4:00 pm in the Beck Memorial Library following Bible Study, we've been using an ecumenical profession of faith for the Season of Creation:

We believe in God, who creates all things, who embraces all things, who celebrates all things, who is present in every part of the fabric of creation.

We believe in God as the source of all life, who baptizes this planet with living water. We believe in Jesus Christ, the suffering one, the poor one, the malnourished one, the climate refugee, who loves and cares for this world and who suffers with it.

And we believe in Jesus Christ, the seed of life, who came to reconcile and renew this world and everything in it. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the breath of God, who moves with God and who moves among and with us today. We believe in everlasting life in God. And we believe in the hope that one day God will put an end to death and all destructive forces. Amen.

May this season fill you with joy and wonder at the beauty of the earth and all creation!

P.S. Hope to see you at the Harvest Potluck tomorrow, Saturday Oct. 22nd at 5:00 pm. Come join us, even if you didn't sign-up or have a dish to share.

The Collect for the Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

God loves you.
No exceptions.

If tiny goblins and ghosts don't frighten you, and sharing a good time with the collective community interests you, email alexanderdunford@outlook.com to get involved. Thank you!

What will Pastor Bill wear for Halloween? Guess and Win a Prize!

He won't be dressed as a Lord & Taylor volunteer (although the vests are awesome) and the only clue he'll share is that he will wear his "favorite" color... Place your guess and name in any of the Halloween Candy donation baskets and win your favorite candy bar (full/large, not fun sized) if you guess correctly.

From The Music Corner...

Dear ones,

We are loved with an everlasting LOVE, and underneath are the Everlasting Arms.... This theme emerges continually in our faith journey. May this song bless you in these glorious autumn weeks.... As billions of leaves dance downward, we reflect on transition and change; all the while embracing the unchanging and Eternal affirmation of our Belovedness.

Input Sought in Search for Next Presiding

The Episcopal Church Joint Nominating Committee for the Election of the Presiding Bishop invites all Episcopalians to participate in a survey. The responses will help the committee develop a profile of the skills, qualities, and gifts the church seeks in its next presiding bishop, considering what the church and world may look like in the next decade. The church's General Convention will elect the next presiding bishop in the summer of 2024.

The deadline for completing the survey is October 31st and can be found online at: <https://www.generalconvention.org/jncepb-survey>

Wolfeboro Serves Needs Your Help

In the face of natural disasters, violence, or grinding poverty, hygiene kits can mean the difference between sickness and health for struggling families. - Ziploc Bags (Gallon size only)
 - Hand towels measuring approximately 15" x 28" to 16" x 32" (no fingertip, bath, dish towel or micro-fiber)
 - Washcloths
 - Wide-tooth combs
 - Fingernail or toenail clippers
 - Bath-size bar of soap in the wrapper
 - Standard size Band-Aids
 - And monetary donations for shipping ($2 to ship per kit)
- Donation bin is in the parish hall.

Our Sunday School Children Need Your Presence

The Episcopal Church is deeply committed to fostering communities and congregations that are safe spaces for all people, particularly those who may be vulnerable in some way, to worship and minister generously, free of any form of harassment, bullying, abuse, or exploitation. To that end, our policy and practice is to have two adults present. Please sign-up to be a classroom assistant on the bulletin board and speak with Parish and Safe Church Administrator Debra Hoyt or Pastor Bill if you have any questions. Thank you.

Lord & Tailor

Celebrating 40 years

Lord and Tailor Bin Team Needs You

The Lord and Tailor Bin Team needs volunteers! We are in need of volunteers to help empty the clothing donation bin next to the Lord and Tailor Thrift Shop. Normally a Bin Team Volunteer is assigned a week to periodically check the bin for clothing donations. The process is simple. The Volunteer transfers clothing from the bin into one of our wheeled carriers and then, using the elevator, transfers the clothing to the sorting room upstairs at Lord and Tailor. The Volunteer also transfers excess clothing to the shed behind the church. A Volunteer should be healthy enough to lift bags.

If you are interested in helping out or if you want more information, please contact either Paul Vivian at (703) 798-8978 paulhv@aol.com or Sandi Johnson at (603) 569-3337 smjohnson@metrocast.net.

Thursday Bible Study

We are currently studying the Book of Exodus. If you have not received the Thursday Afternoon Bible Study e-mails before and would like to be added, please share your e-mail with Pastor Bill.

The message of Exodus is of God acting to free a powerless people and bring them into covenant relationship. This event reveals God's faithfulness to Israel and to Egypt and all other nations of the world as well. The exodus is so important that it is even used to describe who God is: "I am the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery" (Exodus 20:2). The people become the Lord's "treasured possession out of all the people's," "a priestly kingdom," and "a holy nation" (Exodus 19:5-6) and receive the Torah to show them how to live in relationship with this gracious and liberating God through the everyday activities of life.
