Many Members One Body

"For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ."

1 Corinthians 12:12

Beloved Siblings in Christ,

Each person at All Saints is a unique piece to God's puzzle. It takes each one of us using our gifts of wealth, wisdom and works to do God's work as many members and one body as church. As a puzzle cannot be completed if just one piece is missing, each one of us is equally important.

Earlier this fall you received a pledge packet with a unique, one-of-a-kind puzzle piece and card to share your intention, pledge, and promise to support our shared ministries in the coming year. To date 63 member households have returned their puzzle pieces, which fit together into a giant puzzle we're creating in the parish hall, and their completed pledge cards which we will pray over on Sunday. If life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

From The Music and Tech Corner...

Beloved ones,

As darkness closes in, this poem and hymn bring comfort - not only for the shortening daylight, but for the deepening darkness of world events.... "Help of the helpless, O abide with me."

"Abide with me" – sung by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir

Let Evening Come – by Jane Kenyon (see short bio below)

Let the light of late afternoon shine through chinks in the barn, moving up the bales as the sun moves down.
Let the cricket take up chafing
as a woman takes up her needles and her yarn. Let evening come.
Let dew collect on the hoe abandoned in long grass. Let the stars appear and the moon disclose her silver horn.
Let the fox go back to its sandy den.
Let the wind die down. Let the shed go black inside. Let evening come.
To the bottle in the ditch, to the scoop in the oats, to air in the lung let evening come.
Let it come, as it will, and don't be afraid. God does not leave us comfortless, so let evening come.

Jane Kenyon was born in Ann Arbor, Michigan, in 1947, the granddaughter of a fiery Methodist preacher, whose severity frightened her as a child, eventually leading her to turn away from religion for a time. But as an adult, she rediscovered Christianity, and many of her poems reflect her theological imagination. She once was asked how her faith shaped her writing, and she said, "My spiritual life is so much a part of my intellectual life and my feeling life that it's really become impossible for me to keep it out of my work." This idea of faith as part of both "intellectual life" and "feeling life" is worth contemplating.

VESTRY NOTES

The Vestry met on Monday, October 16th. Here's a quick summary of our meeting. Please ask questions of any member if you'd like more information.

Celebrate: ECW creates opportunities to increase our fellowship activities, and this Friday, October 20, is no different! Enjoy a Harvest Supper beginning at 5:30 in the Parish Hall. Ham and beans are on the menu with many other goodies. Thanks to this group of volunteers who work hard with talent and good humor!

Challenge – Have you turned in your piece of the puzzle as your part of All Saints? The formal ingathering will be November 19th, but a picture is forming on the bulletin board with pieces of the puzzle already submitted. We are Many Members, One Body!

Something to Anticipate – On October 29th, the service of Morning Prayer will be led by Cate McMahan at both services. Those who remember the prayer book before 1979 may enjoy hearing familiar prayers, and those not as familiar may anticipate a new experience.

BIBLE STUDY TOGETHER!

Thursday Bible Study

Thursdays in the Beck Library and online via Zoom at 3:00 pm, followed by Eucharist

First impressions stick with us. Paul's first impression of the Thessalonian Christians was an especially powerful one: The gospel message he preached grasped their hearts and minds, and transformed their lives. That memory moves Paul to write to the young church that's bubbling with a sense of the power of the living God. Beginning in October, we will walk through the letters to the early church in Thessolonika as we seek to open our lives to that God who leaves a lasting impression also on us. Join us as we reflect deeply on God's Word and seek to discover how you can participate more fully in God's kin-dom.

Wolfeboro Reads

Please join us for our community book group as we gather via Zoom on Tuesdays 4:00-5:15 pm for reflection and discussion. The Wolfeboro Public Library and Country Bookseller have our lists.
