Beloved Siblings in Christ,

Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia, alleluia! The church keeps Easter for eight Sundays. Early Christians referred to Sunday as the eighth day, as if the normal week of seven is miraculously completed in an extraordinary eighth day. The fifty days culminates at Pentecost. Each Sunday, individually and communally, we gather to meet the risen Christ in word and sacrament.

Eastertide is a unique 50 day season of the church calendar ending with Pentecost. It is a festive continuation and observance of Christ's victory over sin, darkness, and death through his resurrection.

This week we will see how Jesus' resurrection confronts the sadness and loneliness of Thomas's doubt. You may have been one of those people who left last Sunday's celebration of the resurrection with feelings similar to those of Thomas. Somehow, Thomas was not in the right place at the right time to see Jesus show up in the flesh and I know I can relate to Thomas's missed opportunity. Opportunities like an Easter gathering with family and friends who live at a distance, or you may not have been feeling well enough to leave the house, all make us feel left and/or missing out.

The disciples were no different, wanting a messiah who overwhelms the world with crushing military might and magical cures. Today, the power of the resurrection is most realized in the real, deep wounds of Jesus' own body. Without those wounds and the real sacrifice that God made on the cross, Thomas's faith would always be hobbled by his overwhelming doubt. Yet we still wonder: how can God's reality of overflowing love and life confront and transform our parched world and wounded bodies?

Sunday we will hear how Jesus makes faith happen by breathing the Holy Spirit upon the disciples and blessing them with peace. He shows Thomas and all God's people that the life-changing resurrection embraces the wounds all people carry. God the Creator's peace, Jesus' wounds, and the breath of the Holy Spirit lead Thomas to believe that Jesus was raised from the dead. Then, Thomas trusts God to care for his body and his life. Just like Jesus' ministry prior to the cross, Jesus reaches for the outsider and restores Thomas to his place in the community.

Risen Indeed!

Bill+

P.S. Thank you to our altar guild, flower guild, choir, minister of music, worship leaders, and parish administrator who worked so diligently for us to experience wonderful worship throughout holy week!

The Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Flower Dedication

Minister of Music Transition Team

Sing and make music from your heart to the Lord. Ephesians 5:19

Good and Gracious God of all creation, we thank you for your gift of musicians. We know that every good and perfect gift comes from you and we ask that you bless all who guide through the ministry of music worship. Fill musicians with your light and love as they generously share with the world. May they find joy in their work and may it fill them with peace, comfort and purpose. We pray in the saving name of Jesus the Christ and by the power of your Spirit. Amen.

Pastor Bill has gathered a transition team representative of our All Saints community and worship. The team will assess the musical needs of our congregation, develop position description(s) and posting(s), and assist with the search process. The team is made up of the following individuals:

- Claudia Bissett – Choir member, flutist, board member Wolfeboro Friends of Music, performs with the Strafford Wind Symphony, and holds a master's degree in musicology.
- Cecelia (Cee) Gandolfo – Choir member, A/V team member, and worship and music team member.
- Jack Ferguson – Choir member, vestry member, worship and music team member and vestry liaison.
- Skip Hancock – A/V team member
- Dianne Wasmuth – Eucharistic Minister ministry coordinator and worship and music team member.
- Bill Woodard – Treasurer, vestry member, and Eucharistic Minister.

On Sunday, June 9th we will honor Holly and Ralph for their dozen years of service. We will have one service at 9:00 am, followed by a celebratory brunch. Please keep Holly, Ralph and the transition team in your prayers as we journey to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through the unknown.

All Saints Community Labyrinth Project

"The labyrinth is a spiritual tool that has many applications in various settings. It reduces stress, quiets the mind and opens the heart. It is a walking meditation, a path of prayer, and a blue-print where psyche meets Spirit."

CLIMATE AND FAITH FORUM

You Are Invited! Join us Tuesday, April 16, Noon to 5:15 for Blessed Tomorrow's 2024 National Climate and Faith Forum. A watch and engagement party will be held at All Saints Episcopal Church, Wolfeboro, NH.

This event will be one of many hosted events around the country; the program will be live streamed. We hope that by gathering together together we can enrich each others' experience and make connections around the state.

Please RSVP to Susan Fuller at susan.fuller@nhipl.org.

Lord & Tailor Spring Refresh Complete

Lord and Tailor will reopen Saturday April 6th.

VESTRY NOTES

The next Vestry meeting is on Monday April 15th.

The Vestry met on Monday, March 18. Here's a quick summary of our meeting. Please ask questions of any member if you'd like more information.

Celebrate: Holly and Ralph are retiring and we need to celebrate their MANY contributions to All Saints. Join us on Sunday, June 9th following the 9:00 service. Much more to come, but mark your calendars.

Somethings to Anticipate: Bob and Bill invite you to join the fun in painting Lord and Tailor even if you just "watch the paint dry!" Next week! Contact Bob Christmas or Bill Woodard or just show up!

Challenge: We need volunteers to help plan the next stewardship campaign. Please contact Jack Ferguson and join those who have already volunteered. Bring your ideas as last year's puzzle will be hard to top.

BIBLE STUDY TOGETHER!

THURSDAYS at 3:00 pm

In person in the library

Online via Zoom

Thursdays in the Beck Library and online via Zoom
at 3:00 pm, followed by Eucharist

New Thursday Bible Study Begins

April 11th

Our Thursday afternoon Bible Study will begin our walk through the first letter of John (which the epistle readings during Eastertide this year come from). In his letters, John expresses delight at believers who are "walking in the truth": behaving with that integrity which reflects the gospel. This involves not just correct doctrine and proper outward behavior, but also love for God and fellow believers. It's this love, John writes, that shows that the truth of the gospel has really been grasped, not as an abstract idea but as what it is, the very life of God himself at work in his people.

Join us Thursdays at 3:00 pm in the Beck Memorial Library (or via Zoom) followed by Eucharist as we explore becoming believers who are "walking in the truth" in our own day--people in whom the very life of God is at work for all to see.

Please join us for our community book group as we gather via Zoom on Tuesdays 4:00-5:15 pm for reflection and discussion. The Wolfeboro Public Library and Country Bookseller have our lists.

Tuesdays, April 9, 16, 23 4:00 pm, Rough Sleepers by Tracy Kidder

When Jim O'Connell graduated from Harvard Medical School and was nearing the end of his residency at Massachusetts General Hospital, the chief of medicine made a proposal: Would he defer a prestigious fellowship and spend a year helping to create an organization to bring health care to homeless citizens? Jim took the job because he felt he couldn't refuse. But that year turned into his life's calling. Tracy Kidder spent five years following Dr. O'Connell and his colleagues as they served their thousands of homeless patients. In this book, we travel with O'Connell as he navigates the city, offering medical care, socks, soup, empathy, humor, and friendship to some of the city's most vulnerable citizens. He emphasizes a style of medicine in which patients come first, joined with their providers in what he calls "a system of friends."

Join us Tuesdays, at 4:00 pm on Zoom:
